ORDER

ONA T. WANG, United States Magistrate Judge:

At the March 4, 2020 evidentiary hearing and initial case management conference the Court directed Plaintiff to order a copy of the transcript and to send a copy to the pro se Defendant. It appears Plaintiff has yet to comply with the Court's order.

Additionally, Defendant has not provided the Pro Se Office with his updated contact information, despite being directed by the Court to do so.

Accordingly, it is HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff shall submit a status letter by April 23, 2020 informing the Court of the date she provided the March 4, 2020 transcript to Defendant.

Further, Plaintiff shall inform the Court of Defendant's updated contact address for mailings. Defendant may, but is not required to, submit his own status letter to the Court. The pro se Defendant, until further order, may submit filings via email to Temporary_Pro_Se_Filings@nysd.uscourts.gov. The Defendant may also – and is strongly encouraged to – consent to receiving electronic service of case activity. See 20-mc-179 (attached).

It is further ordered, that in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, parties and counsel shall conduct all work remotely. This includes, but is not limited to, client meetings, work meetings, and hand deliveries of courtesy copies to the Court (courtesy copies can be sent via email or mail). Pro se documents can continue to be submitted by regular mail or through the drop box located in the lobby of the United States Courthouse at 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY.

If any party or counsel has any private, personal, familial or medical concerns that they need to share with the Court that would necessitate further orders, they may email Wang_NYSDChambers@nysd.uscourts.gov ex parte provided that they advise the other parties that they will be contacting the Court ex parte.

The Plaintiff is directed to mail a hard copy of this Order to Defendant at all addresses she has on record and file proof of service on the docket.

SO ORDERED.

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent & Registration Form to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER¹ at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one “free look” at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail. Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first “free look” or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the “free look” to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your “free look” and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.²

¹ Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) (www.pacer.uscourts.gov) is an electronic public access service that allows users to obtain case and docket information from federal appellate, district, and bankruptcy courts, and the PACER Case Locator over the internet.

² The docket sheet is the official record of all filings in a case. You can view the docket sheet, including images of electronically filed documents, using PACER or you can use one of the public access computers available in the Clerk’s Office at the Court.
